

- 1. In order to bring its production up to care city the Armstadt Telecommunication Plant demanded from the Ministers t (Minister Council) through the HV RFT (RFT Main Maministration) in February 1955 antincrease in the 1955 investment capital for the Deutsche Rost Darwin PO) by 3 million DMC, because the Deutsche Fost was the outstanding consumer of telecommunication equipment.

  On 27 May 1955, Wis request the approved by the Ministerrat with the result that the HV Formulation of Mainisterration (State Planning Commission). Of this amount 3 million by we designed for orders to be rlaced with the Armstadt Telecomenth to the Plant, and 500,000 DME for general raintenafice works
- 2. In late Fay 1955, the Arnstadt Teledomeanication Flant and the HV Fernmelds-. wesen agreed that the plant the to supply chiefly basic construction elements for the extension of existing telephone, exchanges by approximately 2,800 connections. Forecver, the plant received the order to convert 25 rural telechone exchanges with a total of approximately 2,000 connections from a local battery systems an automatic system.
- 3. The 500,000 DER alloted for general maintenance work were to be used for . the enlargement of automatit telephone exchanges.

25X1

25X1 25X1